On Wednesday, August 11th, 2014, the suspect stole a wallet from the victim while in the parking lot area of Colossus Drive in Vaughan. Thirty minutes later at 4:56 p.m. the suspect was captured by bank surveillance attempting to withdraw funds at an ATM also located on Colossus Drive. After multiple attempts at trying various PIN numbers the suspect left without obtaining any cash.

Citizens are reminded to use unique PIN numbers that are not easy for a criminal to figure out. It is also recommended to change PIN numbers and passwords on a regular basis. Fraud costs us all.
