Investigators with the York Regional Police and Peel Regional Police Special Victims Units are alerting the public about a suspect believed responsible for two violent sexual assaults, one in Richmond Hill and the other in Mississauga.

On Thursday, September 27, 2013, at 12:00 a.m., a female victim was exiting a transit bus in the area of South Service Road and Crestview Avenue in the City of Mississauga. An unknown male produced a weapon, grabbed the victim and pulled her to a darkened area where she sexually assaulted her. The victim sustained minor injuries as a result of the assault.

On Thursday, November 13, 2014, a female exited a transit bus at approximately 12:30 a.m. at Yonge Street and Bernard Avenue in the Town of Richmond Hill. The female was approached by an unknown male who demanded money from her, then pulled her into a darkened area and sexually assaulted her. The victim required hospital treatment for her injuries.

THE SUSPECT IS DESCRIBED AS:

Male, 5'10" to 6', with a muscular build, light to medium skin tone, wearing a covering over his face.

Investigators believe these two incidents are linked. The suspect appears to be targeting females with a slight build who are exiting transit busses after dark. He is using physical force to overpower his victims and sexually assault them.

A tip line has been set up by the York Regional Police Special Victims Unit – Sexual Assault Section and anyone with information is asked to call 1-866-876-5423, ext. 2400 or if you wish to remain anonymous contact Crime Stoppers.
