Investigators with the York Regional Police Special Victims Unit – Sexual Assault Section are seeking public assistance in identifying a person who may be a witness to a sexual assault in Richmond Hill.

On Thursday, November 13, 2014, a female exited a transit bus at approximately 12:30 a.m. at Yonge Street and Bernard Avenue. The female was approached by a male suspect in the area of Yonge Street and Canyon Hill. The suspect demanded money from her then sexually assaulted her.

Following the incident investigators and officers with the Search and Rescue Unit conducted an evidence search and canvass in the area Yonge Street and Canyon Hill Avenue.

The investigation into this incident continues and police are now releasing video and images of a man who was observed near the scene of the incident. Police believe he may have information that might assist in the investigation.

Investigators are asking this individual or anyone who recognizes this man or who has information regarding this incident to come forward.

THE WITNESS IS DESCRIBED AS:

Male, 20 to 30 years, wearing a jacket, jeans, glasses and a baseball hat. Due to the type of camera it is unknown if the man's skin tone and clothing colours depicted in the photos are accurate
