Investigators with the York Regional Police Homicide Unit are seeking public assistance in identifying a possible witness to a fatal shooting of a 41-year-old Toronto man in May, 2014, in the City of Vaughan.

The video is available to be viewed at  <http://youtu.be/Osiaa8cHVaA>

On Sunday, May 4, 2014, at approximately 4:30 p.m., York Regional Police responded to reports of gunshots in a retail parking lot in the area of Highway 7 and Weston Road. Attending officers found a lone male victim laying in the parking lot suffering from gunshot wounds. The man was transported to hospital where he succumbed to his injuries. The victim was identified as Ritesh THAKUR, 41, of the City of Toronto.

The investigation into this incident continues and police are now releasing video and images of a man who was observed inside a Moxie's restaurant near the scene of the incident. Police believe he may have information that might assist in the investigation.

Investigators are asking this individual or anyone who recognizes this man or who has information regarding this incident to come forward.

THE WITNESS IS DESCRIBED AS:

Male, black, 20 to 30 years, wearing a dark coloured jacket, dark pants and light coloured shoes.
