Officers with the York Regional Police 4 District Criminal Investigations Bureau are seeking public assistance in identifying a suspect wanted in regards to a fraud in the City of Vaughan.

On Friday, September 19, 2014 at 3:17 p.m., the suspect attended a gas station located at 1487 Centre Street in Vaughan. The suspect used a credit card to purchase a $75 gift card. He was not required to enter a PIN as he used the Pay Pass feature for the purchase. Once that transaction was approved he asked the store clerk for a second $75 gift card. Due to the additional dollar value the suspect was asked to enter the PIN for the credit card or he would have to provide some photo identification. The suspect could not produce any identification so he grabbed the credit card back from the clerk and left the gas station heading eastbound on Centre Street.

THE SUSPECT IS DESCRIBED AS:

Male, Middle Eastern, 25 – 35 years of age, 5'6", 165 lbs., with short dark hair, brown eyes, with a small scar beneath his left eye, wearing a dark green New York Yankees baseball hat with a black logo and flat brim, with a black t-shirt with a large white diamond logo on the front, a long sleeved blue and white checkered shirt, blue jeans and black Nike sneakers with white trim.
