Investigators with the York Regional Police 4 District Criminal Investigations Bureau are seeking public assistance in identifying a suspect following an assault involving a road rage incident in the City of Vaughan.

On Sunday, April 19, 2015, at 12:26 p.m., the suspect became involved in a road rage incident with another motorist at the intersection of Rutherford Road and Weston Road in Vaughan. During the incident the suspect was crossing the street and he became involved in a physical confrontation with another motorist. During the altercation the victim suffered a broken jaw and required medical attention at an area hospital. The unidentified suspect then fled on foot into a subdivision to the northwest of the intersection. The suspect was accompanied by an unknown female who was not involved in the altercation.

THE SUSPECT IS DESCRIBED AS:

Male, White, 20 – 30 years, 5'9", with short black hair, wearing a black The North Face jacket, a white shirt, black shorts, white socks and dark coloured running shoes
