Investigators with the York Regional Police 4 District Criminal Investigations Bureau are seeking public assistance in identifying a suspect following two thefts at a cellular phone store in the City of Vaughan.

On Tuesday, January 27, 2015 at 7:55 p.m., the suspect entered the cellular phone store located at 8280 Highway 27 in Vaughan. Upon entering the store the suspect spoke with a staff member and inquired about a phone. As the suspect was leaving he approached the display and removed two Apple iPhone 6's from the security cables and left the store.

On Wednesday, February 11, 2015 at 8:20 p.m., the suspect attended the same cellular phone store again, however this time as soon as he entered the store he went to the phone display and removed three cell phones from the security cables and left the store. Two LG Nexus phones and an HTC cell phone were stolen.

THE SUSPECT IS DESCRIBED AS:

Male, Black, 25 – 35 years of age, 6'1" – 6'3", wearing a black winter jacket with a hood, a grey hoodie, grey sweat pants, a black toque and white running shoes.
