Investigators with the York Regional Police 2 District Criminal Investigations Bureau are seeking public assistance in identifying a suspect following a theft at a retail store in the Town of Richmond Hill.

On Saturday, March 21, 2015 the two suspects entered a retail store located at 9350 Yonge Street in Richmond Hill where they made their way to the electronics department of the store. The female suspect then distracted the store employee while the male suspect removed 9 Apple Ipads from the locked display case, using a device he had in his possession. The Ipads were then concealed within the shopping cart they were using at the time. Both the male and female suspect exited the store without making any attempts to pay for the merchandise. The suspects then drove off in the suspect vehicle being driven by the male suspect.

THE SUSPECT IS DESCRIBED AS:

Suspect #1- Male, Black, 25 - 30 years of age, 5'9", with a slim build, wearing a black Toronto Maple Leafs hat with a grey brim, grey track suit with black/ white running shoes.

Suspect #2- Female, Black, 25 - 30 years of age, 5'7", medium build and long curly hair with blonde highlights at the bottom, wearing a grey track suit with black/ white running shoes.

THE VEHICLE IS DESCRIBED AS:

A 4-door white Mercedes Benz with tinted windows and a black roof rack.
