Theft (13-188767)

Crime Stoppers needs your help in identifying and apprehending suspects.

On July 9, 2013, two unknown males attended the parking lot of 2 Maison Parc Court in the City of Vaughan, and stole a blue Freedom Concepts Adventurer AS 2000 rear steer special edition tricycle valued at $4000. The suspects used a bolt cutter to remove the lock. The owner of the tricycle had locked it to a bike rack in the parking lot of the building at 5:00 p.m. on July 8. It was found missing the following morning.

The owner of the tricycle suffers from cerebral palsy and had earned the tricycle through the Tim Horton's Earn a Bike Program. The program rewards a child who volunteers their time with York Regional Police by cleaning up their local streets, parks and schools.
